33rd Annual HERITAGE WEEK in West Vancouver

This year's theme: Altogether Inclusive

West Vancouver's first observation of Heritage Week was in February 1989 -- many years of celebrating our beautiful community! Pandemic times are challenging so even more important to recognize what we have. Let's try to enjoy the week this year considering all aspects of our heritage. Some lost, alas, but relieved some heritage assets saved from demolition, however still more effort needed for others threatened.

BREAKING NEWS!

Two positive announcements re heritage right during Heritage Week!

1. Help identify potential heritage resources in West Vancouver

Are you aware of a potential heritage resource that others may not know about? Suggest heritage resources that are valued by the community but have not yet been identified.

Details <https://westvancouver.ca/news/help-identify-potential-heritage-resources-west-vancouver>

2. Feb 25: the Navy Jack House report appeared on Ccl's Mar 7th agenda.

★ HERITAGE FAYRE 2-4pm Saturday in the atrium of the WV Cmnty Ctr

Finally got all the permissions to hold the Heritage Fayre! NB: Everyone must be wearing a mask and show vax proofies. There are eight "manned" display tables with residents eager to talk to you and tell you what they do along with the importance/value of our heritage. There's more material on the Info Table on other groups.

★ NOTES

When you think of heritage: Value yesterday's past, enjoy today, make more for tomorrow.

Yet another chaotic covid year! A reminder: Heritage has five categories:

palaeontological; archaeological; historical, ie cultural; architectural; and scenic wch includes landscapes, streetscapes, and parks (our natural heritage), IOW environmental.

(See <http://heritage.westvan.org/categories-of-heritage/>)

FYI, here's the District of West Van Heritage Register:

<https://westvancouver.ca/home-building-property/planning/heritage/community-heritage-register>

You will notice not just houses, but also schools, churches, parks, and trees (but just three trees, so let's hope more identified).
